

Electric Vehicle + Hybrid Familiarisation Course

This course has been designed in conjunction with New Zealand's top experts in driver safety and electric vehicle operation and charging. The course introduces drivers of all experience levels and abilities to the unique features of EV's, with practical training completed in your specific model of company vehicle. It also refreshes knowledge of the key safety and risk factors of driving a vehicle on New Zealand roads.

What's involved

- 1 A 20 minute EV online module
 - Completed prior to the face-to-face session
- 2 A 20 minute group discussion covering
 - Technology in EV's
 - EV operating safety
 - Charging, charging stations and charging safety
- 3 A 20 minute practical EV Familiarisation session
 - TWIRL (Tyres, Windscreen, Indicators/Lenses, Rumples and Rust, Panels, Lights and Mirrors)
 - Vehicle fit
 - In-vehicle familiarisation and technology
 - Practical charging and safety
- 4 A 60 minute practical driving session
 - Groups of three at a time
 - Each driver completes a 20 minute test drive and EV technology coaching

Staff and business benefits

- Understanding of electric vehicles and how they work
- A report including feedback on areas of risk and how to reduce them
- Increased awareness of correct driving practices
- Confidence and skill to handle an electric vehicle
- Less down time on the job, given the up-to-date knowledge, increased skill awareness and experience
- Assists businesses to meet workplace safety regulations including Director's duty of care
- Engages staff in the vehicle health and safety process
- A certificate of completion for each driver

Approved supplier

Supported by

